TULSA/ATLANTA

Our pilgrimage begins as we depart Tulsa on Delta flight # 516 at 3:25 PM to Atlanta. Arrive at 6:25PM - Depart on Delta flight #176t to Dublin at 8:08 pm.

Monday, September 25,

Dublin/ Middleton/ Cork

Early arrival in Dublin Airport at approx. 08.50 AM. After collecting luggage, using rest rooms etc meet with Paddy Martin your driver and your motorcoach for the tour.

Travel south to county Kildare and your first visit will be St. Brigid's Cathedral and round tower in Kildare www.kildare.ie. St Brigid brought Christianity to the area in the 5th Century. After mass. We will then proceed south east to Kilkenny with a possible visit St Canice's Cathedral. This is the ideal place to have lunch at the Kilkenny design workshops restaurant opposite the castle or in one of its traditional pubs i.e Langtons. Following spending time in Kilkenny we make our way to Middleton Distillery for a visit and tasting, after this we make our way to our hotel in the Cork area for 2 nights. (D)

Cork City/ Waterford & Cobh/ Cork

Early departure to Waterford City and visit of Waterford Crystal visitor centre, after the visit we can have Mass in the Viking area of the city. After Mass we make our way south to Cobh and the Cobh Visitor Experience, Here we will get a glimpse of life here in Ireland in the eighteen and nineteen hundreds and the difficulties people endured travelling on ships which left from Cobh to the United States and Britain in the search for better opportunities and work.

Also we can track the last week's travels of one of its more famous visiting ships, the "Titanic." If you are into the Titanic, Cobh was the last port of call.

Cork/West Cork/Killarney

This morning we head to West Cork and onwards to a beautiful little church (Oratory) at Gougan Barra. This is where St. Finbarr the patron saint of Cork first founded a church where the river Lee begins. We may be able to have Mass here.

There is tremendous scenery and will require a little walk by the guests to get to it. It is now a very popular wedding venue because of its beauty. After visiting here we continue to the southwest and travel along the Atlantic coast through the villages of Glengarriff (Maureen O' Hara spent much of her later life here and was once president of the local Golf Club (The Quiet Man actress).

Continue over the Cahal mountains through beautiful scenery and the town of Kenmare and via the very last section of the Ring Of Kerry and probably the most beautiful part from Molls Gap lady's view and panoramic lakes of Killarney where we will stay for one night.

Here the guests will get a chance to experience what life is like in the town which has been christened the capital of Ireland's tourist industry. (B,D)

Killarney/Dingle//Limerick

Leave Killarney after Mass and head to the Atlantic coast again and visit the Dingle Peninsula with its spectacular views along a serpentine road with the Blasket Islands to be seen off the coast. We will visit the famous Gallarus Oratory and the Church at Kilmalkeder Church (ruins) with its ogham stones and example of an old sundial.

We can stop in Dingle town, a famous fishing village with many fine pubs and restaurants serving fish and fish soup (chowder) It is also famous for a resident by the name of Fungi, a dolphin who visited and never left. After lunch we head inland and north through the Golden Vale and deeper into the province of Munster to the city of Limerick where we will overnigh. Here there is the opportunity of attending a banquet with music and dance, a little story-telling whilst being served dinner by girls dressed in traditional attire of the middle ages, shannonheritage.com (B, L)
